Although the heavens were dark with angry clouds during the greater part of the afternoon, the storm king graciously held up until about 6 o'clock in the evening, thus giving pionicers who had observed with alarm the gathering clouds and muttering thunder an opportunity to reach their homes be-fore the rain commenced to fall. But even the rain did not dampen the ardor of many of the picnicers, who continued their festivities until long after dark, notwithstanding they were without shell

er. There was no public celebration of the day in Wheeling. It was observed in the good, old-fashioned way-in the woods-with celebrations and picnics, the good, on-isantones and picnics, orations, music, etc. Never before, we are told by old citizens, have so many picnic parties and excursionists left our city on "the day we celebrate—or, in fact, on any other day. Picnics were so numerous, indeed, that we shall necessarily be obliged to speak of them briefly.

The military picnic at Ohio Valley Grove, four miles above the city, on the P. W. & Ky. Road, attracted an immense crowd of people, estimated at from 2,000 to 2,500. The picnic was given by Companies A, B and C of the First West Va. Regiment. The military paraded in the morning, before leaving for the Grove, but there was a rather slim turnout, the Goff Guards and Schmulbach Guardonly marching. Trains were run from the city to the grove every hour. There the city to the grove every hour. There were several interesting sports during were several interesting sports during the day, the most important being a single scall boat race, which was won by Henry Weisgerber. Billy Myer furnished the muss for the dancers. The bummer element began to-congregate on the grounds in the afternoon, and a number of disgraceful fights was the result. Several persons received slight injuries, one individual receiving a gash in the head by a bayonet in the hands of a militiman who was endeavoring to keep order. A young fellow named Daily was hit between the eyes with a beer mug and pretty badly hurt. The other persons hurt are scarcely worth mentioning, their injuries are so slight.

Black Prince Lodge No. 19, K. of P., gave a big picnic on the Fair Grounds, fully 1,500 persons being present. Aulong the amusements offered for the entertainments offered for the entertainments. the amusments offered for the entertainment of the public were horse races, mule races, wheelbarrow races, target shooting, foot races, etc. Prizes were given to the winners of each race. Louis Medic won the foot race, and was awarded a silver medal. Miss Holland was declared the best lady waltzer, and Mr. Ed. Glass the best gentleman waltzer, the former receiving an elegant fruit basket and the latter a silver cup as prizes. Birch's Band furnished the music for the dancers.

as the picnicers seemed to relish a romp in the woods more than the eloquence of the speakers, this part of the programme was omitted. Young Whims, of the South Side, sang several of his humorous songs, to delighted audiences, and there were an abundance of other amusements for the entertainment of all. The Sabbath Schools of Wesley M. E. and Mt. Olivet Churches united in a picnic at White's Grove, a short distance up Caidwell's Run.

The members of the St. Alphonsus Church picniced at Father Kreusch's Vineyard, on Wheeling Hill. Refreshments were served during the day, and good music was in attendance.

The lodges of Hari-Gari, Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellows and Red Men of South Wheeling united in a grand picnic at Blumer's Orchard, up Caldwell's Run. There were "select picnics" and "pri-vate picnics" in almost every orchard and grove in the vicinity. Their name is legion, and we will not attempt to even furnish an incomplete list of them.

The order and decorum of the day was first-class. So much so, that all pronounced it the perfection of a picnic. No doubt the absence of intoxicating drinks led to this good order. Such excursions, without a single incident to mar enjoyment, are rarer than they should be. Those who participated in the Lockwood Picnic give great praise to Father Sullivan and his committee of arrangements.

Horse's Lio Broken.—George Wincher, expressman, lost a valuable mare on the morning of the Fourth. He was driving down the road on the gravel part of the wharf with several packages of freight for the Parkersburg packs, and in crossing over the sewer leading from 12th street, at the edge of the paved wharf, the sewer having been injured by the heavy wash of Tueeday evening, broke in, and the mare getting her leg between the edges of two of the large capstones, fell and broke it just above the pasturn joint. The animal being rendered useless by reason of the injury, Mr. Wincher had her shot. Horse's Luc Broken .- George Winch es, and everything passed off pleasantly and everybody went home satisfied, those who won prizes especially so, and those who did not consoling themselves with the fact that it took very good shooting to beat them, and with a determination to do better next time.

The Club had two tents erected, with seats, for the accommodation of the shooters. The shooting began at 10:30 a. M., and with the exception of an hour's intermission for dinner, was kept up unwhot in the rain.

The shooting was remarkably good. It took 22 out of a possible 25 to win the first prize in any match. As will be seen by the scores, there were a great many ties, which were decided according to the rules in force at the range at Creedmoor wis.

viz:

1. By the fewest misses.

2. By the fewest outers or twos.

3. By the fewest inners or threes.

4. By the fewest centres or fours.

5. If still a us, by inverse ordeshots, counting singly from the ls the first,

6. By firing single shots.

the first,
6. By firing single shots.
This method of deciding ties is a great saving in time, it being necessary to shoot off in but two cases.
The prizes were pretty equally divided between the "visiting statesmen" and the home shootists, nine prizes being won by the Wheeling men amounting to $83 50, and five by the visitors, amounting to $56 50.

Wellsburg was represented by Messrs.
Applegate, Virgin and McClellan; Bethany, by Dr. Shriver and Messrs. Finley and Ridgely, the best shots in their respective localities. The shooting of the Maynards and Bethany and Wellsburg was very close, the waysage of the Maynards.

Maynards and Bethany and Wellsburg was very close, the average of the Maynards being 19.54, Bethany 19.44, and Wellsburg 19.35 per man.

Another match will probably take place soon, as the interest in rifle practice seems to be increasing. On account of the military puche the military match for a $50 gold coin was postponed till some future day, probably Saturday, 18th inst.

The Maynard Club will shoot their second contest for the prize rifle next Wednesday, at $00, 900 and 1,000 yards. The members of the club will be pleased to see any visitors who feel an interest in long range rifle shooting. We append long range rifle shooting. Wednesday's Rain.—As a sanitary measure the heavy rain of Wednesday evening was of immense benefit to the city. Where the water had an unobstructive flow the streets and allers were left as clean as a floor. At the crossings, however, immense piles of gravel from the hills accumulated, which will give extra work to the street cleaning contractor, or will have to be removed by the force of the Street Commissioner. The gravel portion of the wharf, just below the P. W. & Ky. road, was literally cut to pieces. Great gullies and holes that would hide a horse were washed out, and the debris accumulated against the flats lying in the river. This is one of the incidentals which draw considerable sums of money from the city treasury. WEDNESDAY'S RAIM .- As a sanitar
